

May 23, 2019 In: 6:30 Out: 7:30

Special Guest: Marybeth Carroll, Reading Specialist. "Decoding Dyslexia" is launching in Brooklyn next Thursday @ the Sterling School on Atlantic Ave. General invitation to parents.

PTA Elections: 4 people running unopposed:

Allison Kupferberg, Director of Fundraising

Elizabeth De Velasco, VP Annual Fund

Jennifer Jerutis, Lower-grade rep

Anna Zhuravitsky, Co-treasurer

SLT Elections: 2 open two-year positions, 3 persons running: Kate Gitnick, Biba, and Meg. A quorum was established. Kate and Meg voted in by those present.

Parent Coordinator's Report, Pamela Rosenberg:

Middle School Application Stats: 26% of students got into their 1st choice, 18% in 2nd choice, and 9 % got into their 3rd choice; 9% got into none of their choices, Which is the same % as last year.

Pamela explained the appeals process, and clarified that students can put in 3 choices for their appeal.

Our 13th St. Crossing guard is out for a week; asking for parents to help with morning and afternoon crossings.

Class picnics are coming up, and teachers will be asking for chaperones.

Update from Principal, Ms. Eve:

The STAR project collected 1205 pairs of shoes!

ELS tests and Science tests coming up next week.

Next year's class sizes will remain about the same

Our school psychologist is out on medical leave, and we are waiting for a temp.

Budget projection for next year is 525, compared to 550 this year.

Building project update: demolition on the roof is coming soon.

5th Grade talent show--May 29th

Spring Fling--June 5th

Movie night--June 7th

Big Yard Games are merging with class picnics, since the big yard is split. Need volunteers!

Spring Gear Sale: last day to order is May 31. Announcement on Konstella.

PS107 Night at the Cyclones--Sunday June 23rd.

