

How is year going?

- Thing are off to a good start in school: Smooth morning/transition
- Good feedback on morning meeting/huddles

Building

- Looking for leaks – mid-year we'll know – but will most likely need major work on outside of the building. Work will probably start over the summer.

NY Times Article

- Sheri and Eve have been served/lawsuit. Complaint to commission on human rights.
- Lots of parent support – reaching out to Eve saying the article doesn't reflect their experience.

Budget

- DOE withdrew small class funding.
- DOE also withdrew designated special education teacher funding.
- Resulted in $122,000 budget shortfall. Budget gap closed without losing staff or programs but will result in fewer subs hired for absence and professional development.

NYS Test Results 2016-17

- Good results. 86% proficient (scores of 3 & 4) in ELA and Math. Gained 1% in ELA. Gained 2% in Math.

Recess

- 154 and 321 use/have used Kids in the Game. Great program. Very expensive. $30,000/year.

Cell Phone Policy

- DOE says kids have to have right to bring cell phones to school but 107 policy is that the phones may not be turned on or visible.

Safety Plans

- Plans in place; lock downs and fire drills will be starting soon

Diversity

- Co-chairs meeting tomorrow
- Applied to be a No Place for Hate school from the ADL again this year.
- At least one teacher from every grade on the committee
- Staff training on Election and Chancellor's Days

ICT Education

- Discussion about how to educate parents on the range of services available at the school. Sarah Hunt and ICT parent, Kim Berney-Brooke will be doing information workshops on the range of services available to families.

CEP Goals and Methods for Addressing Goals

- Social-Emotional Learning
 - Responsive Classrooms
 - Guidance lunch groups
 - Community Standards
 - Community Service
 - Sex Ed
 - More parent workshops
- Math
 - Better assessment tools
 - Better alignment of curriculum maps
 - More targeted instruction

The next SLT meeting will be on Wednesday, 10/18 at 2:50 – 4:30.

(This year's meetings are then scheduled for 11/15; 12/13; 1/24; 2/14; 3/21; 4/18; 5/16; 6/20)
